

Modern Greece

Year 5

What I should already know

-To use world maps, atlases, digital maps and globes to locate countries and features studied.

- Some of the differences between the UK and Mexico

-To identify hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator, North and South poles.

- That goods are imported and exported to and from countries around the world

Vocabulary

City	A large town.
Euro	The single European currency, which replaced the national currencies
Hemisphere	A half of the earth, usually as divided into northern and southern halves by the equator, or into western and eastern halves by an imaginary line passing through the poles.
Longitude	The angular distance of a place east or west of the Greenwich meridian, or west of the standard meridian of a celestial object, usually expressed in degrees and minutes.
Capital City	Seat of government of a country or political unit.
Earthquake	A movement or tremor of the Earth's crust.
Democracy	A system of government by the whole population or all the eligible members of a state, typically through elected representatives.
Map	A diagrammatic representation of an area of land or sea showing physical features, cities, roads, etc.
Atlas	A book of maps or charts
Climate	Climate Zone: are divisions of the Earth's climates into general climate zones according to average temperatures and average rainfall.
Mountain range	A mountain range or hill range is a series of mountains or hills ranged in a line and connected by high ground.
Ocean	A very large expanse of sea, in particular each of the main areas into which the sea is divided geographically.
Continent	Any of the world's main continuous expanses of land (Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, Australia, Antarctica)
Population	All the inhabitants of a particular place
Export	To send goods to another country for sale

Map of Greece

Learning Journey Assessment

- I can locate Greece on a map
- I can give directions to different parts of Greece using the 8 compass points
- I can use online tools, including digital maps, to find information about Greece
- I can describe how Greece is different to the UK
- I can describe why Greece is a popular tourist destination
- I can communicate my knowledge about Greece in a variety of ways, including writing at length and using graphs
- I know which products are exported from Greece